Call Opportunity for Full-time Director of Music

Good Shepherd is a member congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA). It is an active 700 member congregation in the Westborough area of Massachusetts. Good Shepherd has an active program of community outreach in music and the arts. Our musician must have a passion for proclaiming the gospel through music and an appreciation of the importance of music in the ministry of a diverse and vibrant congregation.

Good Shepherd is looking for a Rostered Person (Associate in Ministry) with the ability and vision to grow our music ministry. We are calling a full time musician with a heart for ministry. Our musician will need to find ways to use music and the arts as outreach and evangelism tools.

Qualifications for the position include:

- skilled organist with ability to play a Hook and Hastings historic, reverse tracker, two manual pipe organ
- training and experience to participate in both traditional and contemporary Lutheran services
- patience and enthusiasm for teaching, to foster an atmosphere in which all our volunteer musicians, young children to adults, vocal and instrumental, can present their offerings to God in worship
- ability to work well with other musicians, encourage their participation in worship, recruit and support directors for many different ensembles, and schedule their music offerings in worship
- organization and teamwork with our pastors in a collegial and supportive atmosphere in planning worship and other special programs
- leadership to direct and nourish our adult choir, bell choir, children's choirs and instrumental programs
- creativity and enthusiasm to strengthen and grow each of the existing programs and develop new ones
